COMES AS CLIMAX TO OTHER CASES

Suit For $10,000, Alleging Alienation of Wife's Affections, Filed by R. B. Hardin.

AGAINST MRS. GLENDENNING

Plaintiff's One-Time Mother-in-Law Accused of Causing His Wife to Leave Him.

The climax to a series of legal actions involving the Hardins and Glendenings, well known people of near Arlington, came today in the filing of a $10,000 damage suit by Robert B. Hardin against Mrs. Margaret Glendenning, his one time mother-in-law, alleging alienation of affections.

According to the complaint, Robt. B. Hardin and Jeanette Glendenning, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Glendenning, were married August 12, 1914, and separated May 24, 1915. Since this time a divorce has been granted Mrs. Hardin. It is alleged that Mrs. Glendenning insisted that Mr. and Mrs. Hardin live with her following their marriage and that she arranged for it.

The complaint stated that the defendant was so attached to her daughter after the marriage, that she would not allow her even to sleep without her and the defendant insisted upon and did sleep with the plaintiff and his wife a large portion of the time after they were married, and refused to allow her daughter to leave her either day or night.

Mrs. Glendenning's two sons are also blamed for causing the break in their domestic relations. It is alleged that after a time these two sons began to tease Hardin and annoyed and harassed him in different ways. The complaint states that at one time the two Glendenning boys threw him down on the floor of the defendant's house and stripped him of his clothing.

The plaintiff states that he worked and was industrious and had great affections for his wife and desired to live apart from his mother-in-law, and that they did finally move to a home of their own. He alleges that Mrs. Glendenning refused to stay away from her daughter and made frequent trips to their home and induced and persuaded her to leave her own home and go to the defendant's home.

The complaint states that the defendant and her sons began persistent courses of persecution against Hardin and coaxed his wife away from him. It is alleged that Mrs. Glendenning stated she could separate Hardin and his wife any time she desired to do so.

It is further alleged that the defendant "contriving and wrongfully wickedly and unlawfully intending to injure said plaintiff and deprive him of the fellowship, society, assistance, companionship and aid of his wife and to alienate her affections for him, the defendant on May 24, 1915 unlawfully, wrongfully unjustly and maliciously tempted, enticed, persuaded and allured Jeanette Hardin to abandon him, his home and live away and apart from him."

Because of these things Hardin demands $10,000. He is represented by John A. Tittsworth and Thomas M. Green.

FOUR CANDIDATES.

POWER UPSURPED, CHAIRMAN RESIGNS

Jackson Boyd, Head of Progressive State Committee, Quits Because Ed. Lee is in Charge.

HE RESIGNED A MONTH AGO

(By United Press.) Greencastle, Ind., Nov. 18.—Jackson Boyd announced today that he had resigned from the chairmanship of the State Progressive party a month ago. He said that since he understood the committee planned to keep secret his resignation he made this announcement and gave the reason for his resignation. He resigned, he said, because a committee of the leaders of the party had taken the party management out of the hands of the state committee and had placed it in charge of Ed. M. Lee, former state chairman of the party.

Boyd asserted his action did not result from any lack of loyalty to the party.

HUGHES DECLINES TO BE A CANDIDATE

LETTER TO STATE OFFICIAL

(By United Press.) Washington, Nov. 18.—Justice Charles E. Hughes of the supreme court today announced his formal declination of the candidacy for presidency on the Republican ticket as placed on the official primary ballot of Nebraska.

In a letter to the secretary of state of Nebraska today, Justice Hughes said:

"A petition having been filed with you on November 13, 1915, requesting that my name be placed upon the official primary of the Republican party for the primary election to be held in Nebraska on April 16, 1916, as a candidate for the office of president of the United States, I hereby notify you that I decline the nomination made by this petition or similar petitions and request that my name shall not be placed upon the ballot at such primary election."

Justice Hughes' letter was accompanied by oath made before a notary who testified to its authenticity.

"GO-TO-PRAYER MEETING."

The M. E. church is to observe "Go-to-Prayer Meeting Night" in the service tonight. The service begins at 7:30. The pastor, A. M. Whitsitt, will give a short talk on "Christian Activity." There will be special music and all members and friends of the church are urged to be present.

VANATTA GOES TO HIGHER COURT

Appeals From Verdict of Jury Which Gave Him $50 Fine and Sentenced Him to 90 Days.

ABOUT 25 BALLOTS ARE TAKEN

Reported Jury Thought it Unreasonable For Defendant to Use 4 Gallons in 12 Days.

John Vanatta, who was found guilty on a blind tiger charge yesterday in police court, appealed the case to the circuit court. Vanatta was fined $50 to which was added a 90 day sentence at the penal farm. The appeal bond was fixed at $500 and Vanatta was released pending the trial of the case in circuit court.

The jury returned the verdict at five minutes after four o'clock after being out for almost two hours. The jury found Vanatta guilty on the first ballot, but had difficulty in determining what sentence to give him. Something like twenty-five ballots were taken in determining the punishment for Vanatta.

It is understood that at least two of the jurors voted to give Vanatta the maximum under the law. This would have been a fine of $500 and a six months sentence. These two jurors held out for a long time and almost caused a disagreement, because one or two men insisted that Vanatta be given a reasonable sentence. After a long debate the fine was fixed at $50 and the sentence at three months. L. H. Havens acted as foreman of the jury.

One member of the jury stated that the strongest evidence against Vanatta, and the point on which he undoubtedly was convicted, was the unreasonable amount of whiskey he would have to drink to consume all he received, as was brought out in the evidence. It was brought out that Vanatta received four gallons of whiskey in a period of twelve days.

This juror stated that this seemed unreasonable to the jury, as Vanatta was only making five dollars a week working for August Roth. It was figured out that Vanatta would have to average over three pints of whiskey a day to consume all that he received. This looked almost impossible to the jury, it was stated, and the only conclusion was that he had the liquor there for the purpose of sale.

PETITIONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Mrs. Woodford Cassady Has Not Money to Continue Case.

A petition for an allowance has been filed by Mrs. Della Cassady in her divorce suit against Woodford Cassady. Mrs. Cassady alleges that she has no money with which to prosecute the cause and asks the court for an order compelling the defendant to give her a reasonable sum for support. She declares that he is now paying her about $15 a month out of the $100 he makes as a mail carrier.

WERE CLEANING BATTERIES

The fire bell accidentally sounded the number thirty-four this afternoon and the department made a run to Jackson and Second streets. Workmen at the water and light plant were engaged in cleaning the batteries and in some manner this caused the bell to ring. The alarm box was not even open and the number was sounded but once.

HID BEHIND THE IMPERFECT ONE

People Out of Church Can't Use Failures in it as an Alibi, Evangelist Smith Says.

ANSWERS THE OLD ARGUMENT

Evangelist Jamieson Replies to Assertion Christ is an Imposter—5 Converts at Christian.

That the person out of the church can not hide behind that old alibi, the imperfect member, and offer it as an excuse for remaining out of Christ, was the substance of the Rev. J. H. O. Smith's arguments in his sermon at the Main Street Christian church Wednesday night. He replied to the old argument of the non-church member by showing that failures in any given line of business did not keep more men from entering the same business.

There were five more conversions at the Christian church last night. They make thirty-nine which have joined during the present series of meetings. Tonight Evangelist Smith will speak at seven-thirty on the theme, "The Trembling Judge" and Singing Evangelist Saunders will sing, "Weighed in The Balance." Several of the converts will be baptized Friday night.

The Rev. S. R. Jamieson will preach tonight at the United Presbyterian church on the topic, "Preparation For Meeting God." The subject of this afternoon's Bible study was "The Blood in the Old Testament." He declared the Bible had more to say about blood, sacrifice, substitution than anything else. From Genesis to Revelations the scarlet line is found running right along, he said. Every page proclaims, he said, the soul-saving truth, "Without shedding of blood there is no remission of sins."

"What Men Think of Christ," selected from the text, Matthew, 16:15: "Whom say you what I am," was the subject of the sermon by the Rev. S. R. Jamieson at the United Presbyterian church last night.

"This very important question on a very important subject was originally addressed to Christ's disciples, but it is no less applicable to us today," he said.

"There are many opinions abroad concerning Christ. Some people deny that such a person as the Christ of the Gospels ever lived. They say the whole Gospel history is a fiction, a forgery, cunningly devised and artfully executed by man. This claim is absurd.

"Others say that he was an imposter. To such we reply in the language of the Jewish rabbi, 'We knew that there was a teacher come from God for no man can do those miracles that thou doest except that God be with him.' It is evident that no man can work miracles except by the power of God. Christ did work miracles. Then either Christ was no imposter or else God assisted Him in the fraud.

"Others say Christ was a mere man—a good man—but only a man. If he was only a man, He was not a good man, for He claimed to be the son of God. Either He was what he claimed to be or else He was a fraud and a deceiver. Many others admit with the Apostle Peter, 'Thou art Christ, the son of the living God.' This answer went with the approbation of Jesus, for He said: 'Blessed art thou, Simeon For flesh and blood hath not revealed this unto me, but my Father, who is in heaven.'

"What do we think of Christ? As to the work He came to accomplish?"

NORWEGIAN SHIP SINKS

Five of Crew of Ulriken Perishes After She Hits Mine

(By United Press.) Amsterdam, Nov. 18.—The Norwegian steamship Ulriken, New York to Rotterdam, has been sunk by a mine. Five of the crew perished.

The Ulriken carried three thousand tons of wheat contributed in the United States for relief of destitute Belgians.

Survivors from the lost vessel said the Greek steamship Otamas also was sunk by a mine near the scene of the explosion that destroyed the Ulriken.

AUSTRIA PROTEST IS IN ORDER NOW

State Department Receives Affidavit From American That Ancona Was Fired on.

EVEN AFTER SHE HAD HALTED

(By United Press.) Washington, Nov. 18.—Protests to Austria regarding the sinking of the Ancona will be made by the United States as a result of information obtained today from the only known American survivor, Dr. Cecile Greil.

An affidavit from Mrs. Greil said that the Ancona was bombarded by the submarine after the vessel had stopped. The bombardment continued 45 minutes, she said. Many passengers were killed and wounded. She did not say whether the Ancona attempted to escape after she had been ordered to halt.

The definite and authentic information from an American source the first received by the state department, that passengers were subjected to fire by the submarine after the vessel stopped leaves the American government no alternative but to file a vigorous protest with Austria. This fact alone will necessitate negotiations according to an official; regardless of the Ancon's alleged attempt to escape.

NO ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE BREAK

Anti-Saloon League Feels That Hanly Took Advantage of Situation at Convention

ADVANCING NEW PARTY

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18.—No attempt was made at the headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League to disguise the fact that an open break had come between J. Frank Hanly former governor, and the League, following Hanly's unsuccessful attempt to control the state temperance convention here.

The Anti-Saloon League considers that Hanly took an unfair advantage of the League and the audience at the convention when in an eloquent speech in which he favored a new party to fight for prohibition, he asked all in favor of the plan to stand.

Hanly's personal ambition to lead the proposed new party was uppermost according to an official of the League, who said Hanly was invited to speak merely out of courtesy.

At Mr. Hanly's home it was said that he was out of the city.

MOTORISTS HAVE SOME GOOD LUCK

Rise in Price of Gasoline Begins Just as The Touring Season Draws to a Close

INCREASE IS FELT HERE

Advance in Quotations on Crude Oil This Week Expected to be Felt Locally Also

Motorists figure that "things have been breaking their way." The occasion for that glad feeling is the fact that crude oil is just beginning to go up and that there will be a subsequent rise in the price of gasoline just at the time when the fall touring season is drawing to a close.

Automobilists generally feel that they have been "putting something over" on the refineries this summer because of the excessively low price of gasoline, but, on the other hand, it is calculated that the refineries were in touch with the situation and knew just what was happening. The falling off of the export trade due to the war is advanced as a cause for the low price of oil the last summer.

Owners of machines have read with more than usual interest the rapid increases in the prices of crude oil throughout the United States this week and they all have enough experience to know that the advance will be felt here within a week or ten days.

During the winter months the sale of gasoline to motorists is greatly reduced, especially in the smaller communities and rural districts, hence the increase will not have much effect here. Even in the cities where the streets are in excellent condition all the year, cars are used largely for commercial purposes and long tours are taboo.

The price of gasoline has been climbing steadily all summer but the increase was so slight that not many noticed it. Early in the summer, just after the weather settled down to accommodate motorists, the price of gasoline was nine and one-half cents a gallon wholesale. A few weeks later it jumped to thirteen and a half cent a gallon wholesale. At that price the retailers had to charge fifteen cents.

Another jump of a penny a gallon or perhaps more is expected within a week or ten days due to the advance in crude oil. The price of the refined product does not move up simultaneously with the crude but the ultimate consumer in the end pays the increase.

Coal oil has been wholesaling at from six to seven and one-half cents all summer. This price is expected to go up as the result of the new price quoted for crude oil.

It is stated that the price of coal oil and gasoline is governed largely by the law of supply and demand. Business in the oil fields has been stagnant and consequently the refineries had to pay a better price. Some of the independent companies raised their prices several months ago but the Standard Oil company remained stationary. However, this week the latter company ordered the new prices into effect and they are expected to rule on the whole market.

WARD WAS ACQUITTED.

John Ward was found not guilty on two charges of violating the speed laws this morning by Mayor Bebout. Ward was charged with exceeding the speed limit and with failure to drive to the right. The charges were placed against him by William Dugan, driver of a milk wagon. Mayor Bebout held that the state did not have enough evidence for a conviction on either charge.

Tomorrow the greatest of all railroad dramas "The Juggernaut" will be shown. Earl Williams, Anita Stewart, and Julia S. Gordon are featured. The picture is full of thrilling scenes. A railroad wreck is said to be the most remarkable ever filmed. The bridge crumbles and the mass of steel plunges into the river.

The Gem offers a two reel feature "A Message For Help" for the first picture tonight. It is said to be a thrilling drama telling a pathetic story of an Indian girl's faithful devotion to a soldier who wooed and ran away. The other picture is a comedy entitled "It Almost Happened." Nellie Rhodes, Lee Moran and Neal Burnes are featured. Tomorrow night the three reel feature "The Fascination of the Fleur de Lis" will be shown. Cleo Madison is featured in this drama.

Mystery and dramatic scenes cleverly etched with comedy, are a few of the qualities promised in George Pleydell's sensational story, "The Ware Case," to be offered at the Shubert Murat Theater, Indianapolis, as its Thanksgiving attraction, for three nights and two matinees, commencing Thursday matinee at 2:30, Nov. 25th, by Garrick Producing Company. This organization which includes Jessie Bonstelle, A. A. Schantz, Richard Lawrence, Leo Butzel, George H. Nicolai and J. J. Shubert, has provided an unusual cast headed by Lou Tellegen. "The Ware Case" concerns the death mystery of Eustace Ede, brother of Lady Ware. Sir Hubert Ware has dissipated his fortune and Lady Ware's life has been none too happy. During a party at the Ware estate the body of Eustace Ede is found on the shore of a lake. It is supposed he struck his head while diving. Later developments prove Sir Hubert was bankrupt at the time and is saved public disgrace through the money reverting to Lady Ware through her brother's death. Suspicion of the crime rests upon him, a strong circumstantial chain being forged through Ware's remarks previous to the finding of Ede's body, and the fact that his signet ring found in the lake, might have made the bruise on Ede's head. Lady Ware persuades Michael Adye, a lawyer of unusual ability and an ardent admirer of hers, to defend her husband, whom she believes innocent. In a realistic and strenuous trial scene so written the audience is impelled as part of the jury. Sir Hubert is acquitted. In the following act the playwright furnishes the proof of his ability constructing big surprise of the play and fresh drama with tense sustained dramatic interest. Lou Tellegen, who heads the cast, will be remembered in Indianapolis as leading man for Sarah Bernhardt. Others in the cast include Montague Love, Albert Bruning, Corliss Giles, Gladys Hanson, Maude Hannaford, John Haliday, Robert Vivian, A. P. Kaye, Charles Derickson, Dana Parker and Henry Von Weiser.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin, druggists.

Mahoning council, No. 36, D. of P., will hold a regular meeting Friday night and Shawmut council of Connersville will do the work. A pitch-in supper will be given and all members were urged to bring well-filled baskets.

EAT LESS MEAT
IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Indications of Trade

Lines of automobiles parked on the streets of Rushville record the growth of Rushville as a trading center. Farmers in increasing numbers can be seen on the streets of Rushville on trading days and out of the busy seasons their visits in Rushville are not confined to Saturdays.

In spite of the chronic kickers, the Chamber of Commerce and many individuals are continually boosting Rushville, causing its advantages to be appreciated—Rushville with its up-to-date stores, its well lighted and well kept streets and its beautiful homes.

Rushville can become the admiration of all its neighbors if its people will co-operate in making Rushville a better place, will never allow their interest in their home to fag out and will continue to boost for it regardless of the pessimistic grouches who never have a good word for anything.

Rushville as a banking center is not appreciated as it should be. Although there are many small banks scattered throughout the county, the continued growth and prosperity of the 4 financial institutions here reveal how they have prospered by increased dealings with farmers from all over the county.

Possibly a larger majority of the farmers are prosperous more than any other class of citizens. The best evidence of their condition is the way they have been buying automobiles in the last few years. Rushville merchants depend as much if not more on the trade of the country people than they do on the people of Rushville.

Rushville can also boast of a large commuter's trade. Towns along the interurban lines and the railroads send their daily contingent to Rushville to shop. The country cross-roads stores do not flourish as they once did. The country people can reach the larger centers of trade so easily by catching an interurban or jumping into the automobile and come ten or twelve miles while the average person who lives at the edge of Rushville is walking to the business center of the city.

Surface Scratched

There were in the United States last year 2,240,000 miles of public roads only 10 per cent of which are classed as "improved roads." Last year the expenditures on account of road construction, including the estimated value of convict labor, made by States, counties, townships and districts aggregated about $235,000,000. Ten years ago the expenditures on this account amounted to approximately $79,000,000 and the difference between these two sums shows that there has been a great advance in the demand for improved public highways. But with 90 per cent of the roads of the country over which the people travel and do business, unimproved, it is clear that so far the surface has scarcely been scratched. In the German Empire in Europe, which covers less territory than the single American State of Texas, there are 36,000 miles of State road and in Prussia alone the annual expenditure on the public roads amount to $35,000,000. In England and Wales, less in area, than the State of Florida, there are 150,908 miles of public roads, of which 27,826, miles are what are called "main roads" and 123,082 miles are included under the designation "other than main roads." Five years ago the local authorities in England and Wales expended on these roads, not including loans which amounted to $7,916,964, $32,498,000. In Florida, according to the latest available information there are 1,752 miles of what are called "improved roads." However odious comparisons may be, they are useful at times to show how far behind the rest of the civilized world the United States are in taking care of the most important economic problem with which they must deal if the immense resources of the country are to be developed.

What is Needed

Commenting on our large export balance for September, due to war orders, the New York Journal of Commerce observes that a principal means of paying it off is through the sale of American securities now held abroad. The Journal then calls attention to the fact that "There is no record of that or means of estimating it with accuracy. That it has fallen short of providing the means of payment for our exports is proved by the exchange situation and the necessity of establishing foreign credits to be drawn upon over here, which is equivalent to borrowing money in the United States, the money to be paid back with interest when normal time return. Sooner or later those payments will be made in merchandise form, which means that our imports must greatly increase while our exports will undoubtedly diminish. Then will come a period very different from that through which we are now passing and some views of foreign wars and domestic prosperity will have to undergo revision." Which means that the Underwood free trade measure will have to be supplanted by a Republican protective tariff law, if we are to be commercially prepared to meet the situation.

The Nimble Dollar

The old time merchant used to buy half a year's supply of a given article at a time. He locked up all his own money and all he could borrow in his goods. If he turned his whole stock in a year, he might be doing fairly well.

Today it is the ambition of live business men to turn their capital oftener. A five per cent margin on sales under the old system was not a living profit. Under the modern system of quick sales, it should yield a handsome return.

The one means by which this modern ideal can be realized is by persistent advertising, reasonably proportioned as a necessary part of regular expenses.

The amount of business that a store does is in proportion to the persistence with which it solicits business. Consequently the store that advertises is the store that turns its capital frequently. Such a merchant does not need to get as much of a profit on each sale as the slow turning store does. Wherefore it pays the public to patronize the stores that advertise because they can afford to sell cheaper.

The farmers in many parts of the country are selling their horses and mules for war purposes. An automobile is much better to go to town to see the moving pictures with.

Postmaster's General Burleson's inability to locate more than a hundred available jobs brings again to notice the pressing need of additional cabinet officers.

It is the popular motion that to prepare for the successful defense of Montenegro its army has only to climb quickly inside and pull up the ladder.

"We are kept busy," says Worth, the man milliner "creating to meet the demand of the American women." Same here Mr. Worth, same here!

THE NEWS OF SUMTER

Indiana received the news of the firing line on Sumter on Friday, Oct. 18. "Through the long Saturday that followed, business was at a stand. The streets were black with breathless multitudes. At ten o'clock a dispatch was announced, 'Sumter has fallen.' Young men and men in middle life looked at the white faces and wet eyes of old and venerated citizens who stood in the street waiting for tidings and a great stillness fell upon them. They turned to separate and crept silently to their homes. No one present upon the eventful Sunday which followed will ever forget it.

The theme of the crisis premeated all the church services. In Indianapolis two monster meetings were held which pledged support to the Government.

Somnambulist Chicken.

C. G. Clark has a somnambulist chicken. He never knew it before last night. He discovered it in a peculiar way.

He drives his machine to the Main Street Christian church for the revival each night. Last night was no exception. Mr. Clark left the automobile out in front of the church while he attended church and after the services, he together with some members of his family and neighbors, drove home. When they got out of the car they noticed a shapeless mass huddled up on the running board. They investigated and found it to be one of their chickens. It had evidently gone to sleep on the running board at dusk and had not been awakened by the trip to and from the church.

Obituary.

Bessie Marie Mattox, daughter of Bert and Cleo Starks Mattox was born February 18, 1908 and died Thursday, November 11, 1915, aged 7 years, 8 months, and 24 days.

She was a member of the primary department of the Bible School of the Main Street Christian church and last June took great delight in filling her part in the Children's Day exercises at the Sunday School.

aiding to the full extent of her ability in the work of sending the gospel to the children in heathen land.

Shortly after this she was taken ill and through these months she has suffered greatly, now better, now worse, always as patient as a little life could be until at last she who had helped send the gospel across the sea to little girls in darkness, was herself called across that other sea on the farther shore of which shines the light of life made perfect in Him, there to escape life's temptations and trials and under the perfect instruction of the Great Teacher to develop into the sublime maturity. From the Children's Day exercise of time she has gone to join the group of happy boys and girls who play in the streets of the Golden City for it is written, "The streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof." She leaves behind her to mourn her loss her parents and two sisters, Frances and Marjory all of whom she calls in mute eloquence to a higher and nobler career.

As to His religion? As to the reasonableness of His claims upon man? He came to earth to 'seek and save the lost.' There is no other religion worthy of being compared for a moment to the Christian religion. Christ's religion is the only God-given religion and consequently the only one that meets the wants of poor, fallen man. There is nothing in the universe more reasonable than the requirements of Christ in His Gospel. And there is nothing more unreasonable than the conduct of those who refuse to comply with the requirements of Jesus Christ.

J. H. O. Smith's sermon at the Main Street Christian church was from the text, "What then shall I do when God ariseth up and when He visiteth, what shall I answer Him?" He said in part as follows:

"During the life of Christ upon earth he aroused the most intense opposition from the leaders of His people. This increased until His enemies brought about His death. Now we are proud of Him and call His influence civilization. But there are those who refuse to submit to His teachings or to unite with His church.

"Some excuse themselves by saying that there are so many imperfect members of the church. Some business men fail, bankers and cashiers sometimes stumble, jurists fall, but we do not censure these fallings because of the failure of the few. Abraham Lincoln wrote better English without a college education than Edward Everett, who was a finished scholar. John Bunyan wrote a book which was considered the second in the English language. He had no college training. But this is not an argument against Cambridge and Oxford.

"So there may be exceptional men outside of the church who seemingly accomplish more than some inside of the church, but this is no argument against the divine institution, instituted by Christ and His apostles for the redemption of the world.

"When we stand before God for judgement we will not excuse ourselves because some others did not do their duty. There are no new obligations upon us when joining the church. The obligation was there before, to live in harmony with God's laws and to join with our fellowmen in helping others. Not because we are church members, but because we are men we are subject to reward or punishment as we obey or disobey God's laws.

"The debauchee might say, I never promised to obey the laws of temperance and purity, but that does not lessen the pain of the penalty which the diseased body suffers. We escape no law by refusing obedience. We escape no duty by remaining out of the church. The excuses we make to ourselves and others for refusing to obey God will not be made when we stand before Him."

to 0 score and met with one other defeat when Old Gold went to St.
Louis and tackled the fast St. Louis University squad. All of the other State games on its schedule have been won handily by DePauw.

The two teams, as they will meet here Saturday, are regarded as being evenly matched. Their weight is about the same, and man for man they "stack up" on fairly even terms.

In the twenty-five years that De-Pauw and Wabash have been playing football with one another, each team has won nine games. There have been two 0-0 ties. DePauw has scored a total of 243 points against Wabash, and Wabash has rung up a total of 242 points against DePauw. Games are even, and only one point marks the advantage in a twenty-five years' struggle for supremacy. Saturday's battle will turn the tide for either the Scarlet or the Old Gold.

A great crowd will witness the contest. Governor Ralston has promised to attend if it is at all possible.

Likewise Mayor Bell, Vice-President
Marshall, who is a trustee of Wabash College will occupy a box, as will the presidents of the two institutions. The game will be preceded by a parade of the supporters of the two teams at 10 o'clock in the morning. The game begins promptly at two o'clock.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg
Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time.
It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

DRINK HOT WATER
IF YOU DESIRE A
ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washings the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphate hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

INHABITANTS ARE MOSTLY WIDOWS

Three-Fourths of Population of Sands Springs, Okla., is Made up of This Class.

BUILT ESPECIALLY FOR THEM

Charles Page Made His Fortune and
Then Decided to Found City—
Orphans' Home Also.

(By United Press.)

Sand Springs, Okla., Nov. 18.—This town was built for widows. They compose more than a fourth of the 5,000 population. The town was founded by Charles Page, multi-millionaire oil producer of Tulsa. His earliest recollections were of his mothers efforts to raise her large family unaided and he resolved that when he grew up he would take care of all the widows.

When he made his fortune, Page began to find employment for widows in Tulsa. They became so numerous he decided to build a town for them. So he founded Sand Springs. He built dozens of comfortable cottages in which gas, fuel and rent were free. Factories he brought so the widows might have employment. He built a car line to Tulsa upon which widows ride free. There is a day nursery, free medical attendance and a vocational school. If a widow wants to get married, Page helps her do that. He likes grandmothers, too. There is a score of them here with nothing to do but knit and read and reminisce.

Page, probably, has more children than any other man in the world. An orphan's home in a nearby town recently went bankrupt. To better provide for the little inmates, Page legally adopted the whole institution and moved it to Sand Springs.

Rushville Astonished
By Simple Mixture

Rushville people are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. ONE SPOONFUL removes such surprising foul matter it relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. Because Adler-i-ka acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. F. E. Wolcott, druggist.

during the summer is a fat man wearing a sport shirt and the most distressing sight in the winter is to see someone trying to get along without A GOOD STORM BUGGY. FIGURES IT OUT JUDGE LOST MONEY

Richmond Item Says W. M. Sparks Finished Behind in Sitting as Special Judge in Wayne County.

TO PAY SPECIAL JUDGE HERE

On his return from Chicago where he is this week taking a rest cure, Judge Sparks will be asked to return to Richmond to hear a motion for a change of venue in the Hasemeier-Bentlage suit in which he sat as special judge. The case will likely be sent to Henry county.

The Richmond Item has figured out that Judge Sparks' 20 days time, used in presiding in the Hasemeier-Bentlage case, was not profitable to him despite the fact that he was paid $5 a day for his time. His railroad fare from Rushville to Richmond and return once each week, his hotel bill and other items of expense probably made his time cost him an average of $4 a day while he was here. And in addition to that he had to pay another judge to preside for him in the Rushville circuit court, the days when he was in Richmond. Judge Sparks probably lost $4 a day or near that amount for the time he passed in Richmond. Judge Sparks must pay out of his salary the expense of a substitute in his court, because he was not absent from the bench on account of illness.

PLAN TO PAY OLD MINISTERS HOME

Detroit Conference After Survey Believes it Can Pay 100 Per Cent on Claims

WILL HAVE PERMANENT FUND

(By United Press.) Detroit, Mich., Nov. 18.—The veteran preachers, widows and dependent orphans of the Methodist Episcopal church will receive 100 per cent on claims if recommendations of a committee which has just completed a survey of the condition of their fund are adopted and carried out.

According to the survey the Detroit conference one of the most prosperous Methodist Conferences in 1915 paid its retired preachers' 58 cents on the dollar, while the Bishop drew 100 per cent, the district superintendent 99 per cent, and the pastor 98 per cent.

The way out the survey committee suggests—is by a large increase of invested endowment funds for which the times are ripe. Several conferences in the area are already in the campaign and the Detroit conference will be carefully organized and systematically operated for permanent funds until the investment shall be increased to at least $400,000—the amount necessary to insure the support of the retired ministers.

WAR FIVE YEARS. END NOT IN SIGHT

Deplorable Conditions of Mexico Revealed When Brief History of Turmoil is Recounted.

STRUGGLE OF THE MASSES

Behind Curtain of Arms is Long Stifled Cry of the Peons For Land They Deserve.

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—Diaz dead in Exile, Madero assassinated; Huerta exiled and under arrest; Villa an outlaw, and Carranza heading a "defacto" unestablished government, with civil war still raging.

This is the record of five years in Mexico, a nation prostrate today under fire sword and famine. It is the record of a struggle for a real Republic government, a real democracy, a republic in form and substance a struggle of the masses against the classes.

Behind the curtain of arms on the stage of battlefields is the long stifled cry for land. The effort of Mexico's peons to own land and prevent exploitation and graft both by their own and foreign citizens, are the underlying causes of what now promises to become in Mexican history the "Five Years' War."

The fight divides into 3 eras: those of Diaz, Madero, Huerta. Its immediate future rests with Carranza. Peace, but not liberty or equal individual opportunity, reigned under Diaz for a generation. As President and dictator the "Iron Man" was in power from 1884 to 1910. As a military idol on a platform of freedom and land distribution, Diaz led a revolution in 1875 against President Tejada. He was elected president in 1877, retiring in 1891 in favor of Manuel Gonzalez, being re-elected in 1894 and serving until forced to abdicate in 1910. Diaz was the exponent of special privilege. He held his office with ruthless military force. Graft flourished among his subordinates. Wealthy, educated Mexicans supported him. Foreign concessionaires thrived. Land barons extended their holdings. The poorer classes were slaves unable to rent or buy land. Unprecedented Mexican development followed—for the wealthy. Peace prevailed.

Then came decay, with age, of Diaz' power. Outcry against the científicos, or wealthy, landed and educated classes increased. The peons demanded distribution of government land, relief from confiscatory taxes and a voice in elections. Soldiers presided over the polls, insuring Diaz' continued re-election. Wealthy and powerful private citizens, civil authorities and military heads to stem the tide of revolution.

The Madero movement was born in 1909. Francisco I. Madero, of a wealthy family of northern ranchers, led a new revolution. He promised social and economic reforms including division of government lands and cancellation by the government of land patents given the científicos. Foreign exploitation of Mexico he also promised to end.

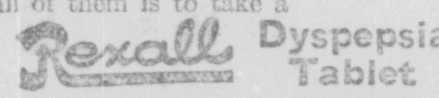

Aiding Madero was his brother, Gustav, and Pasquale Orozco. They organized a revolutionary army in Sonora. It soon seized Juarez and swept southward, reinforced by revolutionists from Chihuahua and other northern states, the hotbed of revolutionary activity. Historians differ as to whether Pancho Villa, later to become a popular hero, enlisted in the Madero revolution.

Certain foreign, oil and ranch concessionaires supported Madero. Others supported Diaz, whose power weakened with age, his army honeycombed with treachery and desertion. Diaz resigned and fled to Paris, where he died last summer.

Francisco Madero was elected to the Presidency in 1910.

Government Ownership Plan For Battleships is Probable

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 18.—Secretary Daniels announced today that a plan is being considered that contemplates government ownership of every element connected with battleship building. The reason, he says, is that "a most serious situation has arisen in our national defense program."

In a caustic statement Daniels charged manufacturers with willingness to sacrifice the United States government in its naval campaign because they believe they see profit to supply munitions to European countries. They are so busy that they do not have time to build ships for Uncle Sam, he said.

RECOMMENDS THAT PERMIT BE ISSUED

Member of Chicago Coroner's Staff
Believes Nothing Should Prevent Baby's Burial.

PETITION AGAINST HASELDEN

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—Coroner Hoffman today received an official report from one of his staff physicians recommending issuance of a permit to bury the pitifully misshapen body of Baby Bollinger. In the meantime, many persons opposed to Dr. Haiselden's course in permitting the infant to die without an operation were circulating a petition demanding that medical authorities take steps to revoke his license to practice.

Health Commissioner Robertson today frankly declared he believed some action should be taken to prevent future practices of the kind. He flatly refused a burial permit, explaining, however, that if the coroner's office recommends it, he must grant one.

Asked whether he feared a grand jury indictment Dr. Haiselden said: "I would not be surprised if the matter went before the grand jury, but I am convinced no twelve men who could pass a sanity test would return an indictment."

COMES AS CLIMAX
TO OTHER CASESSuit For $10,000, Alleging Alienation of Wife's Affections, Filed by R. B. Hardin.

AGAINST MRS. GLENDENNING

Plaintiff's One-Time Mother-in-Law
Accused of Causing His Wife to Leave Him.

The climax to a series of legal actions involving the Hardins and Glendenning, well known people of near Arlington, came today in the filing of a $10,000 damage suit by Robert B. Hardin against Mrs. Margaret Glendenning, his one time mother-in-law, alleging alienation of affections.

According to the complaint, Robt. B. Hardin and Jeanette Glendenning, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Glendenning, were married August 12, 1914, and separated May 24, 1915. Since this time a divorce has been granted Mrs. Hardin. It is alleged that Mrs. Glendenning insisted that Mr. and Mrs. Hardin live with her following their marriage and that she arranged for it.

The complaint stated that the defendant was so attached to her daughter after the marriage, that she would not allow her even to sleep without her and the defendant insisted upon and did sleep with the plaintiff and his wife a large portion of the time after they were married, and refused to allow her daughter to leave her either day or night.

Mrs. Glendenning's two sons are also blamed for causing the break in their domestic relations. It is alleged that after a time these two sons began to tease Hardin and annoyed and harassed him in different ways. The complaint states that at one time the two Glendenning boys threw him down on the floor of the defendant's house and stripped him of his clothing.

The plaintiff states that he worked and was industrious and had great affections for his wife and desired to live apart from his mother-in-law, and that they did finally move to a home of their own. He alleges that Mrs. Glendenning refused to stay away from her daughter and made frequent trips to their home and induced and persuaded her to leave her own home and go to the defendant's home.

The complaint states that the defendant and her sons began persistent courses of persecution against Hardin and coaxed his wife away from him. It is alleged that Mrs. Glendenning stated she could separate Hardin and his wife any time she desired to do so.

It is further alleged that the defendant "contriving and wrongfully wickedly and unlawfully intending to injure said plaintiff and deprive him of the fellowship, society, assistance, companionship and aid of his wife and to alienate her affections for him, the defendant on May 24, 1915 unlawfully, wrongfully unjustly and maliciously tempted, enticed, persuaded and allured Jeanette Hardin to abandon him, his home and live away and apart from him."

Because of these things Hardin demands $10,000. He is represented by John A. Tiftworth and Thomas M. Green.

Ed. Lee is in Charge.

HE RESIGNED A MONTH AGO

(By United Press.)
Greencastle, Ind., Nov. 18.—Jackson Boyd announced today that he had resigned from the chairmanship of the State Progressive party a month ago. He said that since he understood the committee planned to keep secret his resignation he made this announcement and gave the reason for his resignation. He resigned, he said, because a committee of the leaders of the party had taken the party management out of the hands of the state committee and had placed it in charge of Ed. M. Lee, former state chairman of the party.

Boyd asserted his action did not result from any lack of loyalty to the party.

VANATTA GOES
TO HIGHER COURTAppeals From Verdict of Jury
Which Gave Him $50 Fine and Sentenced Him to 90 Days.

ABOUT 25 BALLOTS ARE TAKEN

Reported Jury Thought it Unreasonable
For Defendant to Use 4
Gallons in 12 Days.

John Vanatta, who was found guilty on a blind tiger" charge yesterday in police court, appealed the case to the circuit court. Vanatta was fined $50 to which was added a 90 day sentence at the penal farm. The appeal bond was fixed at $500 and Vanatta was released pending the trial of the case in circuit court.

The jury returned the verdict at five minutes after four o'clock after being out for almost two hours. The jury found Vanatta guilty on the first ballot, but had difficulty in determining what sentence to give him. Something like twenty-five ballots were taken in determining the punishment for Vanatta.

It is understood that at least two of the jurors voted to give Vanatta the maximum under the law. This would have been a fine of $500 and a six months sentence. These two jurors held out for a long time and almost caused a disagreement, because one or two men insisted that Vanatta be given a reasonable sentence. After a long debate the fine was fixed at $50 and the sentence at three months. L. H. Havens acted as foreman of the jury.

One member of the jury stated that the strongest evidence against Vanatta, and the point on which he undoubtedly was convicted, was the unreasonable amount of whiskey he would have to drink to consume all he received, as was brought out in the evidence. It was brought out that Vanatta received four gallons of whiskey in a period of twelve days.

This juror stated that this seemed unreasonable to the jury, as Vanatta was only making five dollars a week working for August Roth. It was figured out that Vanatta would have to average over three pints of whiskey a day to consume all that he received. This looked almost impossible to the jury, it was stated, and the only conclusion was that he had the liquor there for the purpose of sale.

PETITIONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Mrs. Woodford Cassady Has Not Money to Continue Case.

A petition for an allowance has been filed by Mrs. Della Cassady in her divorce suit against Woodford Cassady. Mrs. Cassady alleges that she has no money with which to prosecute the cause and asks the court for an order compelling the defendant to give her a reasonable sum for support. She declares that he is now paying her about $15 a month out of the $100 he makes, as a mail carrier.

Workmen at the water and light plant were engaged in cleaning the batteries and in some manner this caused the bell to ring. The alarm box was not even open and the number was sounded but once.

HID BEHIND THE
IMPERFECT ONEPeople Out of Church Can't Use
Failures in it as an Alibi, Evangelist Smith Says.

ANSWERS THE OLD ARGUMENT

Evangelist Jamieson Replies to Assertion
Christ is an Imposter—
5 Converts at Christian.

That the person out of the church can not hide behind that old alibi, the imperfect member, and offer it as an excuse for remaining out of Christ, was the substance of the Rev. J. H. O. Smith's arguments in his sermon at the Main Street Christian church Wednesday night. He replied to the old argument of the non-church member by showing that failures in any given line of business did not keep more men from entering the same business.

There were five more conversions at the Christian church last night. They make thirty-nine which have joined during the present series of meetings. Tonight Evangelist Smith will speak at seven-thirty on the theme, "The Trembling Judge" and Singing Evangelist Saunders will sing, "Weighed in The Balance." Several of the converts will be baptized Friday night.

The Rev. S. R. Jamieson will preach tonight at the United Presbyterian church on the topic, "Preparation For Meeting God." The subject of this afternoon's Bible study was "The Blood in the Old Testament." He declared the Bible had more to say about blood, sacrifice, substitution than anything else. From Genesis to Revelations the scarlet line is found running right along, he said. Every page proclaims, he said, the soul-saving truth, "Without shedding of blood there is no remission of sins."

"What Men Think of Christ," selected from the text, Matthew, 16:15: "Whom say you what I am," was the subject of the sermon by the Rev. S. R. Jamieson at the United Presbyterian church last night.

"This very important question on a very important subject was originally addressed to Christ's disciples, but it is no less applicable to us today," he said.

"There are many opinions abroad concerning Christ. Some people deny that such a person as the Christ of the Gospels ever lived. They say the whole Gospel history is a fiction, a forgery, cunningly devised and artfully executed by man. This claim is absurd.

"Others say that he was an imposter. To such we reply in the language of the Jewish rabbi, 'We knew that there was a teacher come from God for no man can do those miracles that thou doest except that God be with him.' It is evident that no man can work miracles except by the power of God. Christ did work miracles. Then either Christ was no imposter or else God assisted Him in the fraud."

"Others say Christ was a mere man—a good man—but only a man. If he was only a man, he was not a good man, for He claimed to be the son of God. Either He was what he claimed to be or else He was a fraud and a deceiver. Many others admit with the Apostle Peter, 'Thou art Christ, the son of the living God.' This answer went with the approbation of Jesus, for He said: 'Blessed art thou, Simeon. For flesh and blood hath not revealed this unto me, but my Father, who is in Heaven.'

"What do we think of Christ? As to the work He came to accomplish,"

Survivors from the lost vessel said the Greek steamship Otamas also was sunk by a mine near the scene of the explosion that destroyed the Ulriken.

AUSTRIA PROTEST
IS IN ORDER NOWState Department Receives Affidavit
From American That Ancona
Was Fired on.

EVEN AFTER SHE HAD HALTED

(By United Press.)
Washington, Nov. 18.—Protests to Austria regarding the sinking of the Ancona will be made by the United States as a result of information obtained today from the only known American survivor, Dr. Cecile Greil.

An affidavit from Mrs. Greil said that the Ancona was bombarded by the submarine after the vessel had stopped. The bombardment continued 45 minutes, she said. Many passengers were killed and wounded. She did not say whether the Ancona attempted to escape after she had been ordered to halt.

The definite and authentic information from an American source the first received by the state department, that passengers were subjected to fire by the submarine after the vessel stopped leaves the American government no alternative but to file a vigorous protest with Austria. This fact alone will necessitate negotiations according to an official, regardless of the Ancona's alleged attempt to escape.

NO ATTEMPT TO
DISGUISE BREAKAnti-Saloon League Feels That Hanly
Took Advantage of Situation at Convention

ADVANCING NEW PARTY

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18.—No attempt was made at the headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League to disguise the fact that an open break had come between J. Frank Hanly, former governor, and the League, following Hanly's unsuccessful attempt to control the state temperance convention here.

The Anti-Saloon League considers that Hanly took an unfair advantage of the League and the audience at the convention when in an eloquent speech in which he favored a new party to fight for prohibition, he asked all in favor of the plan to stand.

Hanly's personal ambition to lead the proposed new party was uppermost according to an official of the League, who said Hanly was invited to speak merely out of courtesy.

At Mr. Hanly's home it was said that he was out of the city.

MOTORISTS HAVE
SOME GOOD LUCKRise in Price of Gasoline Begins
Just as The Touring Season
Draws to a Close

INCREASE IS FELT HERE

Advance in Quotations on Crude Oil
This Week Expected to be Felt Locally Also

Motorists figure that "things have been breaking their way." The occasion for that glad feeling is the fact that crude oil is just beginning to go up and that there will be a subsequent rise in the price of gasoline just at the time when the fall touring season is drawing to a close.

Automobilists generally feel that they have been "putting something over" on the refineries this summer because of the excessively low price of gasoline, but, on the other hand, it is calculated that the refineries were in touch with the situation and knew just what was happening. The falling off of the export trade due to the war is advanced as a cause for the low price of oil the last summer.

Owners of machines have read with more than usual interest the rapid increases in the prices of crude oil throughout the United States this week and they all have enough experience to know that the advance will be felt here within a week or ten days.

During the winter months the sale of gasoline to motorists is greatly reduced, especially in the smaller communities and rural districts, hence the increase will not have much effect here. Even in the cities where the streets are in excellent condition all the year, cars are used largely for commercial purposes and long tours are taboo.

The price of gasoline has been climbing steadily all summer but the increase was so slight that not many noticed it. Early in the summer, just after the weather settled down to accommodate motorists, the price of gasoline was nine and one-half cents a gallon wholesale. A few weeks later it jumped to thirteen and a half cent a gallon wholesale. At that price the retailers had to charge fifteen cents.

Another jump of a penny a gallon or perhaps more is expected within a week or ten days due to the advance in crude oil. The price of the refined product does not move up simultaneously with the crude but the ultimate consumer in the end pays the increase.

Coal oil has been wholesaling at from six to seven and one-half cents all summer. This price is expected to go up as the result of the new price quoted for crude oil.

It is stated that the price of coal oil and gasoline is governed largely by the law of supply and demand. Business in the oil fields has been stagnant and consequently the refineries had to pay a better price. Some of the independent companies raised their prices several months ago but the Standard Oil company remained stationary. However, this week the latter company ordered the new prices into effect and they are expected to rule on the whole market.

WARD WAS ACQUITTED.

John Ward was found not guilty on two charges of violating the speed laws this morning by Mayor Bebout. Ward was charged with exceeding the speed limit and with failure to drive to the right. The charges were placed against him by William Dugan, driver of a milk wagon. Mayor Bebout held that the state did not have enough evidence for a conviction on either charge.

Amusements

"Shanghai" is the title of a two reel Charles Chaplin comedy at the Princess tonight. This famous comedian is said to be at his best in this picture and it is full of comic situations from start to finish. The other picture of tonight's program is a two act drama "The Kidnapped Stockbroker." Dorothy Kelly is featured in this one. Tomorrow the greatest of all railroad dramas "The Juggernaut" will be shown. Earl Williams, Anita Stewart, and Julia S. Gordon are featured. The picture is full of thrilling scenes. A railroad wreck is said to be the most remarkable ever filmed. The bridge crumbles and the mass of steel plunges into the river.

The Gem offers a two reel feature "A Message For Help" for the first picture tonight. It is said to be a thrilling drama telling a pathetic story of an Indian girl's faithful devotion to a soldier who wooed and ran away. The other picture is a comedy entitled "It Almost Happened." Nellie Rhodes, Lee Moran and Neal Burns are featured. Tomorrow night the three reel feature "The Fascination of the Fleur de Lis" will be shown. Cleo Madison is featured in this drama.

Mystery and dramatic scenes cleverly etched with comedy, are a few of the qualities promised in George Pleydell's sensational story, "The Ware Case," to be offered at the Shubert Murat Theater, Indianapolis, as its Thanksgiving attraction, for three nights and two matinees, commencing Thursday matinee at 2:30, Nov. 25th, by Garrick Producing Company. This organization which includes Jessie Bonstelle, A. A. Schantz, Richard Lawrence, Leo Butzel, George H. Nicolai and J. J. Shubert, has provided an unusual cast headed by Lou Tellegen. "The Ware Case" concerns the death mystery of Eustace Ede, brother of Lady Ware. Sir Hubert Ware has dissipated his fortune and Lady Ware's life has been none too happy. During a party at the Ware estate the body of Eustace Ede is found on the shore of a lake. It is supposed he struck his head while diving. Later developments prove Sir Hubert was bankrupt at the time and saved public disgrace through the money reverting to Lady Ware through her brother's death. Suspicion of the crime rests upon him, a strong circumstantial chain being forged through Ware's remarks previous to the ending of Ede's body, and the fact that his signet ring found in the lake, might have made the bruise on Ede's head. Lady Ware persuades Michael Adey, a lawyer of unusual ability and an ardent admirer of hers, to defend her husband, whom she believes innocent. In a realistic and strenuous trial scene so written the audience impelled as part of the jury. Sir Hubert is acquitted. In the following act the playwright furnishes the proof of his ability constructing big surprise of the play and fresh drama with tense sustained dramatic interest. Lou Tellegen, who heads the cast, will be remembered in Indianapolis as leading man for Sarah Bernhardt. Others in the cast include Montague Love, Albert Bruning, Corliss Giles, Gladys Hanson, Maude Hannaford, John Haliday, Robert Vivian, A. P. Kaye, Charles Derickson, Dana Parker and Henry Von Weiser.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin, druggists.

Mahoning council, No. 36, D. of P., will hold a regular meeting Friday night and Shawmut council of Connersville will do the work. A pitch-in supper will be given and all members were urged to bring well-filled baskets.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Indications of Trade

Lines of automobiles parked on the streets of Rushville record the growth of Rushville as a trading center. Farmers in increasing numbers can be seen on the streets of Rushville on trading days and out of the busy seasons their visits in Rushville are not confined to Saturdays.

In spite of the chronic kickers, the Chamber of Commerce and many individuals are continually boosting Rushville, causing its advantages to be appreciated—Rushville with its up-to-date stores, its well lighted and well kept streets and its beautiful homes.

It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Johnson's Drug Store, the popular druggist, are selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine has been successful as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to Johnson's Drug store in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And they stand ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while a complete cure often follows rapidly.

tion of all its neighbors if its people will co-operate in making Rushville a better place, will never allow their interest in their home to lag out and will continue to boost for it regardless of the pessimistic grouches who never have a good word for anything.

Rushville as a banking center is not appreciated as it should be. Although there are many small banks scattered throughout the county, the continued growth and prosperity of the 4 financial institutions here reveal how they have prospered by increased dealings with farmers from all over the county.

Possibly a larger majority of the farmers are prosperous more than any other class of citizens. The best evidence of their condition is they way they have been buying automobiles in the last few years. Rushville merchants depend as much if not more on the trade of this country people than they do on the people of Rushville.

Rushville can also boast of a large commuter's trade. Towns along the interurban lines and the railroads send their daily contingent to Rushville to shop. The country cross-roads stores do not flourish as they once did. The country people can reach the larger centers of trade so easily by catching an interurban or jumping onto the automobile and come ten or twelve miles while the average person who lives at the edge of Rushville is walking to the business center of the city.

Surface Scratched

There were in the United States last year 2,240,000 miles of public roads only 10 per cent of which are classed as "improved roads." Last year the expenditures on account of road construction, including the estimated value of convict labor, made by States, counties, townships and districts aggregated about $235,000,000. Ten years ago the expenditures on this account amounted to approximately $79,000,000 and the difference between these two sums shows that there has been a great advance in the demand for improved public highways. But with 90 per cent of the roads of the country over which the people travel and do business, unimproved, it is clear that so far the surface has scarcely been scratched. In the German Empire in Europe, which covers less territory than the single American State of Texas, there are 36,000 miles of State road and in Prussia alone the annual expenditure on the public roads amount to $35,000,000. In England and Wales, less in area than the State of Florida, there are 150,908 miles of public roads, of which 27,826 miles are what are called "main roads" and 123,082 miles are included under the designation "other than main roads." Five years ago the local authorities in England and Wales expended on these roads, not including loans which amounted to $7,916,964, $32,498,000. In Florida, according to the latest available information there are 1,752 miles of what are called "improved roads." However odious comparisons may be, they are useful at times to show how far behind the rest of the civilized world the United States are in taking care of the most important economic problem with which they must deal if the immense resources of the country are to be developed.

What is Needed

Commenting on our large export balance for September, due to war orders, the New York Journal of Commerce observes that a principal means of paying it off is through the sale of American securities now held abroad. The Journal then calls attention to the fact that "There is no record of that or means of estimating it with accuracy. That it has fallen short of providing the means of payment for our exports is proved by the exchange situation and the necessity of establishing foreign credits to be drawn upon over here, which is equivalent to borrowing money in the United States, the money to be paid back with interest when normal time returns. Sooner or later those payments will be made in merchandise form, which means that our imports must greatly increase while our exports will undoubtedly diminish. Then will come a period very different from that through which we are now passing and some views of foreign wars and domestic prosperity will have to undergo revision." Which means that the Underwood free trade measure will have to be supplanted by a Republican protective tariff law, if we are to be commercially prepared to meet the situation.

The Nimble Dollar

The old time merchant used to buy half a year's supply of a given article at a time. He locked up all his own money and all he could borrow in his goods. If he turned his whole stock in a year, he might be doing fairly well.

Today it is the ambition of live business men to turn their capital oftener. A five per cent margin on sales under the old system was not a living profit. Under the modern system of quick sales, it should yield a handsome return.

The one means by which this modern ideal can be realized is by persistent advertising, reasonably proportioned as a necessary part of regular expenses.

The amount of business that a store does is in proportion to the persistence with which it solicits business. Consequently the store that advertises is the store that turns its capital frequently. Such a merchant does not need to get as much of a profit on each sale as the slow turning store does. Wherefore it pays the public to patronize the stores that advertise because they can afford to sell cheaper.

The farmers in many parts of the country are selling their horses and mules for war purposes. An automobile is much better to go to town to see the moving pictures with.

Postmaster's General Burleson's inability to locate more than a hundred available jobs brings again to notice the pressing need of additional cabinet officers.

It is the popular motion that to prepare for the successful defense of Montenegro its army has only to climb quickly inside and pull up the ladder.

"We are kept busy," says Worth, the man milliner "creating to meet the demand of the American women." Same here Mr. Worth, same here!

Stock market business is again proceeding as usual, and offering the American people the needed facilities for losing their money.

The new reserve banks are appropriate to their name in showing considerable reserve when anyone asks for a loan.

Some of the Congressmen are attending to their duties by sending their secretaries down to Washington.

An Oregonian asks, "when is a chicken wild?" Let him call one of them an old hen, and he'll find out.

A Pessimist might say that one trouble with the 1915 model girl is that she is a runabout.

Knowledge is power, but it takes gasoline to run an automobile.

Some discuss bad roads, while others simply cuss them.

THE NEWS OF SUMTER

Indiana received the news of the firing line on Sumter on Friday, Oct. 18. "Through the long Saturday that followed, business was at a stand. The streets were black with breathless multitudes. At ten o'clock a dispatch was announced. Sumter has fallen. Young men and men in middle life looked at the white faces and wet eyes of old and venerated citizens who stood in the street waiting for tidings and a great stillness fell upon them. They turned to separate and crept silently to their homes. No one present upon the eventful Sunday which followed will ever forget it.

The theme of the crisis premeated all the church services. In Indianapolis two monster meetings were held which pledged support to the Government.

Somnambulist Chicken

C. G. Clark has a somnambulist chicken. He never knew it before last night. He discovered it in a peculiar way.

He drives his machine to the Main Street Christian church for the revival each night. Last night was no exception. Mr. Clark left the automobile out in front of the church while he attended church and after the services, he together with some members of his family and neighbors, drove home. When they got out of the car they noticed a shapeless mass huddled up on the running board. They investigated and found it to be one of their chickens. It had evidently gone to sleep on the running board at dusk and had not been awakened by the trip to and from the church.

Obituary.

Bessie Marie Mattox, daughter of Bert and Cleo Starks Mattox was born February 18, 1908 and died Thursday, November 11, 1915, aged 7 years, 8 months, and 24 days.

She was a member of the primary department of the Bible School of the Main Street Christian church and last June took great delight in filling her part in the Children's Day exercises at the Sunday School.

aiding to the full extent of her ability in the work of sending the gospel to the children in heathen lands.

Shortly after this she was taken ill and through these months she has suffered greatly, now better, now worse, always as patient as a little life could be until at last she who had helped send the gospel across the sea to little girls in darkness, was herself called across that other sea on the farther shore of which shines the light of life made perfect in Him, there to escape life's temptations and trials and under the perfect instruction of the Great Teacher to develop into the sublime maturity. From the Children's Day exercise of time she has gone to join the group of happy boys and girls who play in the streets of the Golden City for it is written, "The streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof." She leaves behind her to mourn her loss her parents and two sisters, Frances and Marjory all of whom she calls in mute eloquence to a higher and nobler career.

FOR BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, BRONCHIAL ASTHMA AND WHOOPING COUGH

Cheapest Remedy Made at Home—128 Teaspoonful For 25 Cents

The first 300 persons calling at Fox Bros' Drug Store will be entitled to a regular 50c bottle of Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expecto-rant for half price (25c) by presenting the coupon below, properly signed. With a view to giving those who have not yet used this new excellent remedy an opportunity of trying it, in the treatment of Bronchial affections, including Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Severe Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness to prove its merits, these druggists are willing to allow the public the profit which they would otherwise make and the proprietor is willing to lose money on the same, so as to give them an opportunity of trying it; at partially their expense, knowing it will be found the best medicine ever used by anyone.

Even though not in need of a Cough or Cold Medicine at the present time, it will pay to buy now, as some such medicine is sure to be required before the winter is over, but this remedy cannot be obtained at less than full price again. Besides making this reduction, these druggists guarantee this remedy just the same as Dr. Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, and will return the money in every single instance, if it does not give perfect satisfaction and even more—if it is not found the best remedy ever used for any of the above complaints.

This excellent remedy is sufficiently concentrated so that 50 cents' worth, when mixed at home with simply one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water (according to printed directions) makes a whole family supply (128 teaspoonful while bottles of the old, regular, ready-made kinds, of doubtful merit, average and without a guarantee, usually average 20 to 32 teaspoonful.

It is prepared from strictly harmless plants, contains absolutely no chloroform, opium, morphine or any narcotic or injurious drugs which do most cough remedies, and can therefore be given to children with perfect safety. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. Besides absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy whatever, on the guarantee of the above well-known, reliable druggists who will refund your 25c if it is not found the best remedy ever used.

If a neighbor or friend could be induced to divide and pay for half the quantity, the cost would thus only be about 12c to each.

As to His religion? As to the reasonableness of His claims upon man? He came to earth to seek and save the lost. There is no other religion worthy of being compared for a moment to the Christian religion. Christ's religion is the only God-given religion and consequently the only one that meets the wants of poor, fallen man. There is nothing in the universe more reasonable than the requirements of Christ in His Gospel. And there is nothing more unreasonable than the conduct of those who refuse to comply with the requirements of Jesus Christ.

J. H. O. Smith's sermon at the Main Street Christian church was from the text, "What then shall I do when God ariseth up and when He visiteth, what shall I answer Him?" He said, in part as follows:

"During the life of Christ upon earth he aroused the most intense opposition from the leaders of His people. This increased until His enemies brought about His death. Now we are proud of Him and call His influence civilization. But there are those who refuse to submit to His teachings or to unite with His church.

"Some excuse themselves by saying that there are so many imperfect members of the church. Some business men fail, bankers and cashiers sometimes stumble, jurists fall, but we do not censure these fallings because of the failure of the few. Abraham Lincoln wrote better English without a college education than Edward Everett, who was a finished scholar. John Bunyan wrote a book which was considered the second in the English language. He had no college training. But this is not an argument against Cambridge and Oxford.

"So there may be exceptional men outside of the church who seemingly accomplish more than some inside of the church; but this is no argument against the divine institution, instituted by Christ and His apostles for the redemption of the world.

"When we stand before God for judgement we will not excuse ourselves because some others did not do their duty. There are no new obligations upon us when joining the church. The obligation was there before, to live in harmony with God's laws and to join with our fellowmen in helping others. Not because we are church members, but because we are men we are subject to reward or punishment as we obey or disobey God's laws.

"The debauchee might say, I never promised to obey the laws of temperance and purity, but that does not lessen the pain of the penalty which the diseased body suffers. We escape no law by refusing obedience. We escape no duty by remaining out of the church. The excuses we make to ourselves and others for refusing to obey God will not be made when we stand before Him."

Any Corn With "Get-It" on It Is an Absolute "Goner!"

Yes, it's the simplest thing in the world to get rid of a corn when you use "Get-It," the world's greatest corn-killer. Really, it's almost a pleasure to have corns just to see "Get-It" work.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as practical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer.

TWO TEAMS ARE EVENLY MATCHED

Wabash And DePauw Will Enter Championship Contest Saturday on an Equal Footing.

BOTH SEASONS SUCCESSFUL

Vice-President Marshall, Governor
Ralston And Other Notables
Will Witness Contest

Indianapolis, Nov. 18.—Everything's ready for the whistle that will be starting signal for the DePauw-Wabash championship football clash here at Washington Park next Saturday.

DePauw and Wabash finished their schedules last Saturday, with the exception of next Saturday's battle, and each has come through the season with a clean string of victories in the Indiana College Athletic League. The championship in this State conference is now up to DePauw and Wabash, and the issue will be settled decisively when the two teams meet Saturday at Washington Park.

Wabash started the season by holding Purdue to a 7-7 tie and has won every other game on its schedule. DePauw lost to Indiana by a 7 to 0 score and met with one other defeat when Old Gold went to St. Louis and tackled the fast St. Louis University squad. All of the other State games on its schedule have been won handily by DePauw.

The two teams, as they will meet here Saturday, are regarded as being evenly matched. Their weight is about the same, and man for man they "stack up" on fairly even terms.

In the twenty-five years that DePauw and Wabash have been playing football with one another, each team has won nine games. There have been two 0-0 ties. DePauw has scored a total of 243 points against Wabash, and Wabash has rung up a total of 242 points against DePauw. Games are even, and only one point marks the advantage in a twenty-five years' struggle for supremacy. Saturday's battle will turn the tide for either the Scarlet or the Old Gold.

contest. Governor Ralston has promised to attend if it is at all possible. Likewise Mayor Bell, Vice-President Marshall, who is a trustee of Wabash College will occupy a box, as will the presidents of the two institutions. The game will be preceded by a parade of the supporters of the two teams at 10 o'clock in the morning. The game begins promptly at two o'clock.

SWELL CHICKENS BY THE THOUSANDS

GOLD MEDALS TO BE GIVEN

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—Thousands of swell chickens, (feathered) were placed on exhibition at the opening of the Exposition's Universal Poultry show today. The great American Hen, Mother of the great American Egg and Stepmother of the great American Cold Storage Plant, is here in all her glory.

Gold medals and cash prizes of from $2 to $50 will go to the best egg hen, best meat hen and best all-around hen. Roosters are also present. Likewise there is a pigeon show. The best 5 cocks, hens, cockrels and pullets will draw prizes. Prof. Dryden of Oregon, "the Luther Burbank of Chickendom," will talk much chicken and some turkey. The American Poultry association and other chicken organizations are meeting here now.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It's the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphate hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

INHABITANTS ARE MOSTLY WIDOWS

Three-Fourths of Population of Sands Springs, Okla., is Made up of This Class.

BUILT ESPECIALLY FOR THEM

Charles Page Made His Fortune and
Then Decided to Found City—
Orphans' Home Also.

(By United Press.)

Sand Springs, Okla., Nov. 18.—This town was built for widows. They compose more than a fourth of the 5,000 population. The town was founded by Charles Page, multi-millionaire oil producer of Tulsa. His earliest recollections were of his mothers efforts to raise her large family unaided and he resolved that when he grew up he would take care of all the widows.

When he made his fortune. Page began to find employment for widows in Tulsa. They became so numerous he decided to build a town for them. So he founded Sand Springs. He built dozens of comfortable cottages in which gas, fuel and rent were free. Factories he brought so the widows might have employment. He built a car line to Tulsa upon which widows ride free. There is a day nursery, free medical attendance and a vocational school. If a widow wants to get married, Page helps her do that. He likes grandmothers, too. There is a score of them here with nothing to do but knit and read and reminisce.

Page, probably, has more children than any other man in the world. An orphan's home in a nearby town recently went bankrupt. To better provide for the little inmates, Page legally adopted the whole institution and moved it to Sand Springs.

THE MOST DISTRESSING SIGHT IN THE WORLD

during the summer is a fat man wearing a sport shirt and the most distressing sight in the winter is to see someone trying to get along without A GOOD STORM BUGGY. If you knew how warm one of my storm buggies would keep you, how well they are made, now nice they look; and what a general comfort they would be to the whole family, you certainly would own one before the end of the week. I have used special pains to obtain a line of storm buggies that have all the little things that make them desirable, quality and style together with a comfortably designed cushion and back, easy riding springs, fine finish and the best of material throughout, are some of the essential things found on them and you are welcome at all times to call and see for yourself and I assure you it will be a pleasure to show you the detail construction of these buggies at any time. The construction of a STORM BUGGY makes lots of difference in the draft and I will explain to you why these buggies are lighter draft than others. It only takes a few minutes of your time to look at our stock and it will mean years of regret if you don't. Now is the time to get ready for winter. SO DO IT NOW.

FIGURES IT OUT

JUDGE LOST MONEY

Richmond Item Says W. M. Sparks Finished Behind in Sitting as Special Judge in Wayne County.

TO PAY SPECIAL JUDGE HERE

On his return from Chicago where he is this week taking a rest cure, Judge Sparks will be asked to return to Richmond to hear a motion for a change of venue in the Hasemeier-Bentlage suit in which he sat as special judge. The case will likely be sent to Henry county.

The Richmond Item has figured out that Judge Sparks' 20 days time, used in presiding in the Hasemeier-Bentlage case, was not profitable to him despite the fact that he was paid $5 a day for his time. His railroad fare from Rushville to Richmond and return once each week, his hotel bill and other items of expense probably made his time cost him an average of $4 a day while he was here. And in addition to that he had to pay another judge to preside for him in the Rushville circuit court, the days when he was in Richmond. Judge Sparks probably lost $4 a day or near that amount for the time he passed in Richmond. Judge Sparks must pay out of his salary the expense of a substitute in his court, because he was not absent from the bench on account of illness.

PLAN TO PAY OLD MINISTERS HOME

Detroit Conference After Survey Believes it Can Pay 100 Per Cent on Claims

WILL HAVE PERMANENT FUND

(By United Press.)

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 18.—The veteran preachers, widows and dependent orphans of the Methodist Episcopal church will receive 100 per cent on claims if recommendations of a committee which has just completed a survey of the condition of their fund are adopted and carried out.

According to the survey the Detroit conference one of the most prosperous Methodist Conferences in 1915 paid its retired preachers' 58 cents on the dollar, while the Bishop drew 100 per cent, the district superintendent 99 per cent, and the pastor 98 per cent.

The way out the survey committee suggests—is by a large increase of invested endowment funds for which the times are ripe. Several conferences in the area are already in the campaign and the Detroit conference will be carefully organized and systematically operated for permanent funds until the investment shall be increased to at least $400,000—the amount necessary to insure the support of the retired ministers.

WAR FIVE YEARS; END NOT IN SIGHT

Deplorable Conditions of Mexico Revealed When Brief History of Turmoil is Recounted.

STRUGGLE OF THE MASSES

Behind Curtain of Arms is Long Stifled Cry of the Peons For Land They Deserve.

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—Diaz dead in exile, Madero assassinated; Huerta exiled and under arrest; Villa an outlaw, and Carranza heading a "defacto" unestablished government, with civil war still raging.

This is the record of five years in Mexico, a nation prostrate today under fire sword and famine. It is the record of a struggle for a real Republican government, a real democracy, a republican in form and substance a struggle of the masses against the classes.

Behind the curtain of arms on the stage of battlefields is the long stifled cry for land. The effort of Mexico's peons to own land and prevent exploitation and graft both by their own and foreign citizens, are the underlying causes of what now promises to become in Mexican history the "Five Years' War."

The fight divides into 3 eras: those of Diaz, Madero, Huerta. Its immediate future rests with Carranza. Peace, but not liberty or equal individual opportunity, reigned under Diaz for a generation. As President and dictator the "Iron Man" was in power from 1884 to 1910. As a military idol on a platform of freedom and land distribution, Diaz led a revolution in 1875 against President Tejada. He was elected president in 1877, retiring in 1891 in favor of Manuel Gonzalez, being re-elected in 1894 and serving until forced to abdicate in 1910. Diaz was the exponent of special privilege. He held his office with ruthless military force. Graft flourished among his subordinates. Wealthy, educated Mexicans supported him. Foreign concessionaires thrived. Land barons extended their holdings. The poorer classes were slaves unable to rent or buy land. Unprecedented Mexican development followed—for the wealthy. Peace prevailed.

Then came decay, with age, of Diaz' power. Outcry against the Cientificos, or wealthy, landed and educated classes increased. The peons demanded distribution of government land, relief from confiscatory taxes and a voice in elections. Soldiers presided over the polls, insuring Diaz' continued re-election. Wealthy and powerful private citizens, civil authorities and military heads to stem the tide of revolution.

The Madero movement was born in 1909. Francisco I. Madero, of a wealthy family of northern ranchers, led a new revolution. He promised social and economic reforms including division of government lands and cancellation by the government of land patents given the Cientificos. Foreign exploitation of Mexico he also promised to end.

Aiding Madero was his brother, Gustav, and Pasquale Orozco. They organized a "revolutionary" army in Sonora. It soon seized Juarez and swept southward, reinforced by revolutionists from Chihuahua and other northern states, the hotbed of revolutionary activity. Historians differ as to whether Pancho Villa, later to become a popular hero, enlisted in the Madero revolution.

Certain foreign, oil and ranch concessionaires supported Madero. Others supported Diaz, whose power weakened with age, his army honey-combed with treachery and desertion. Diaz resigned and fled to Paris, where he died last summer.

Francisco Madero was elected to the Presidency in 1910.

RECOMMENDS THAT PERMIT BE ISSUED

Member of Chicago Coroner's Staff Believes Nothing Should Prevent Baby's Burial.

PETITION AGAINST HASELDEN

(By United Press.) Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—Coroner Hoffman today received an official report from one of his staff physicians recommending issuance of a permit to bury the pitifully misshapen body of Baby Bollinger. In the meantime, many persons opposed to Dr. Haiselden's course in permitting the infant to die without an operation were circulating a petition demanding that medical authorities take steps to revoke his license to practice.

Health Commissioner Robertson today frankly declared he believed some action should be taken to prevent future practices of the kind. He flatly refused a burial permit, explaining, however, that if the coroner's office recommends it, he must grant one.

Asked whether he feared a grand jury indictment Dr. Haiselden said: "I would not be surprised if the matter went before the grand jury, but I am convinced no twelve men who could pass a sanity test would return an indictment."

Government Ownership Plan For Battleships is Probable

(By United Press.) Washington, Nov. 18.—Secretary Daniels announced today that a plan is being considered that contemplates government ownership of every element connected with battleship building. The reason, he says, is that "a most serious situation has arisen in our national defense program."

In a caustic statement Daniels charged manufacturers with willingness to sacrifice the United States government in its naval campaign because they believe they see profit in supplying munitions to European countries. They are so busy that they do not have time to build ships for Uncle Sam, he said.
